MOTION FOR A RESOLUTION

pursuant to Rule 143 of the Rules of Procedure

on US President Donald Trump for the Nobel Peace Prize

Derk Jan Eppink, Robert Roos, Rob Rooker

Motion for a European Parliament resolution on US President Donald Trump for the Nobel Peace Prize

The European Parliament,

- having regard to the Motion for a European Parliament resolution under Rule 143 entitled ‘US-President Donald Trump for the Nobel Peace Prize’, tabled by MEP Christine Anderson and MEP Joachim Kuhs,
- having regard to Rule 143 of its Rules of Procedure,
- A. whereas under President Trump, the United States of America has not started any new military conflicts or invaded any countries, in stark contrast to the record of his predecessors;
- B. whereas President Trump has succeeded in brokering peace agreements between Israel, the United Arab Emirates and Bahrain – the first such agreements for more than 25 years;
- C. whereas President Trump has also successfully brokered political and economic agreements between Serbia and Kosovo;
- D. whereas President Trump has worked hard for a peace treaty with North Korea and had a meeting with Kim Jong-Un in 2018 – the first ever held between a US President and a North Korean leader;
- E. whereas US forces played a role in the final defeat of the Islamic State in Syria in 2019;
- 1. Proposes that US President Donald Trump be nominated for the Nobel Peace Prize;
- 2. Calls on the Council and the Commission to support this proposal on behalf of the European Union.
